TOWN PLANNING (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Town Planning Sir, I have the honour to present to you a Report from investigations made during an official visit to England, Scotland, and the United States of America on Town Planning. The information contained in this Report is intended to show what is being done in other countries to avoid the danger, as threatened in most cities, by insanitary conditions, bad housing, and bad town planning, and to illustrate also what may be done in Victoria for the improvement of our cities, as well as for the health and welfare of our citizens. The planning of a town is not a new idea, but the carrying out of any portion of its growth, towards a completed scheme, had fallen into disuse until recent years. Other countries have awakened to the necessity of providing for town planning legislation, and are reaping the benefits which experience shows are always derived from scientific planning. The development of a city has to be arranged by the study of its conditions and tendency, its inhabitants, its life and industries; but its future expansion can and should be controlled and provided for by taking into consideration the surrounding country, and allocating certain areas for the specific purposes to which they are best adapted. The natural tendency is towards concentration of industry and commerce to obtain greater efficiency. It certainly does this, but at the expense of the vitality of the population. Rapid transit and cheap transportation, with modern facilities, should make possible the distribution of the people to centres containing healthy homes and pleasant surroundings. It is being done in other countries, and I think there is room for much...
