

They Made America: From the Steam Engine to the Search Engine: Two Centuries of

By Buckland, Gail. Lefer, David. Evans, Harold.

Little, Brown. 1 Cloth(s), 2004. hard. Book Condition: New. The founding editor of Condé Nast Traveler magazine and the former editorial director of U.S. News and World Report and president of Random House, Harold Evans here looks at business geniuses that he calls "innovators." These are not the originators of various important inventions, but certainly the ones who made them part of our world, from Robert Fulton, Sam Colt, and Garrett Morgan to Madam C.J. Walker, Joan Ganz Cooney, and Gary Kildall. The book is illustrated throughout with period art, photos, and patent diagrams and other documentation. "In his second large-format book about U.S. history, Evans extolls American moxie, that seemingly native mixture of initiative and luck that produced the Colt revolver, the FM radio, the Kodak camera, Mickey Mouse, and eBay. As a historian, Evans is less concerned with the inventive spark itself than with how it finds capital and markets. This approach allows fresh insights into familiar stories; we know that the Wright brothers flew, but not, perhaps, how they flirted with the French before selling their machine to the U.S. government. Evans favors 'democratizers' who generated affordable mass culture; Henry Ford is his paragon. In the current...
