In case of dividing partnerships in a yard, where and of what the wall shall be built. Is overlooking another s property considered injurious? Of what size the yard must be to be fit for division. May a prayer-house be taken apart before the new building is ready? The legend of Herod the great with Simeon b. Shatuh. How Herod built the Temple without the consent of the Roman government. Concerning partitions, fences in partner s gardens, and valleys. May or may not one be compelled to join in the expenses of fences if one s estate is surrounded by his neighbor s on three sides? If there is a wall, and one of the owners claims that his neighbor did not bear his share of the expense. A debtor who says: I paid my debt before due. If the plaintiff demanded his money long after due. He who claims, I have never borrowed, is to be considered as if he should say, I have never paid. How and where is a parapet to be mad and of what size? If there were two courtyards one upon the other; there were two tenants, and the roof of the lower one sank; there was one who built a wall against the window of his neighbor, etc. Two brothers divided a bequest, a palace and a fine garden, and the latter built a wall on the edge of the garden. There was a note belonging to orphans, against which the other party showed a receipt. Mishna...
