T. Erwin, from the Iowa Agricultural School, represented the Iowa State Society and spent the first two days of the meeting with us. Mr. J. C. Ferris of Hampton, Iowa, was present as delegate from the Northeastern Iowa Society and was there throughout the meeting except the first day. Mr. C. S. Harrison, who is a life member of this society, was present also as the representative of the Nebraska Horticultural Society. All of these gentlemen took an active part in the sessions and added greatly to their interest. The program as published was very closely adhered to. there being scarcch- any absentees. With the exception of the session on Wednesday morning, devoted to the annual reports, the entire program of each session was carried out practically as announced. no topic being carried forward to a subsequent session. A notable exception to this though was the omission of a talk we were to have had from Prof. Green concerning a recent trip to the west and north. He insisted on leaving it out rather than shorten the time allotted to the forestry session. We shall expect to hear from Prof. Green on this subject through our columns. The Woman s Auxiliary as usual gave us a very rich program, including some features not previously announced. The program oi the Forestry Association was given in its entirety without a single omission. A report of the latter association is...
