Excerpt: . . . the BBA, the Plus Choice program, Medicare prescription drug coverage. The value of those hearings, like the value of our discussion today, depends on what we do in response. I hope this hearing signals our commitment to participate fully and on a bipartisan basis in Medicare and Medicaid decisionmaking that will be critical to the providers and beneficiaries we represent; and in keeping with the beneficiary-oriented goals of this hearing, I hope this committee perceives this years legislation not only as an opportunity to address inadequate reimbursement but as an opportunity to directly improve access and coverage for Medicare and Medicaid beneficiaries. Promoting telehealth in Medicare is just one of those issues, but it is important for several reasons. Not only can telehealth serve the best interests of Medicare beneficiaries, but Medicare coverage policy sets a precedent for private coverage. In his written testimony, Mr. Joseph Tracy from the University of Missouri makes a key observation. He said that telemedicine has not proven to be a vehicle for overutilization as some skeptics...
