She looks around for help: none, none to save ! But void, hut hopeless, but substantial night, Dark as her soul is all that meets her sight: The world is changd into a murderers cave. She lifts her eye to heaven--its gloom appals, v No angel there, as once, lost hope reculs, She hovers oer the brink of deep despair. One friend alone is left to succour there, There death yet stands alone, and props her as she falls. IX. Death, pitying stretches forth his meagre hand, Last, truest friend of all the heirs of wo : With ready pace she sinks with him below, And willing seeks the silent shadowy land, Where every pang is mute, no cares complain, Where spirits rove ungalld by earthly chain: Where worldly scenes like childish dreams depart, And nought is left but our immortal heart. How blest! whateer she lov'd in death to meet again. x. Like a mute suffering bloodless lamb she lies, And sighing waits the period of her doom : When in the stillness of the midnight gloom Titania, breathing solace, oer her flies, And soothes her agonies to still repose. And while soft slumbrous dewes her eyelids close, And steep the senses in oblivious rest, In robe of roseate light the fairy drest, Amid enchanting dreams in radiant beauty glows. XI. Arise ! be comforted ! thy lord, thy boy, Yet breathe, though hid from thee, the vital air: They are...
